HALL OF FAME

SALLY SPENCE

Sally's usually busy at work,
She's on the college course,
But she also finds time in-between
For clubs or dances or sports.

ED THOMPSON

His athletic career won him plaudits
His smile wins friends by the rows,
An all-around great fellow,
He'll make touchdowns wherever he goes.

HALL OF FAME

SHIRLE GULLIVER

Tops at sports on all the courts,
He gives them all a whirl.
In spring or fall he's got the ball—
Who? of course it's Shirle.

BILLIE SEECHASE

If you've been around for very long,
This pretty miss you've seen,
Billie's quiet and friendly,
That's why she's our football queen.

HALL OF FAME

DELORES LEVI

In drama or in scholarship
She really knows her lines.
From stage or from classroom
Our "Doji" always shines.

BOB BOYLE

Wrestling with copy, captions, and cuts
Is our corn-fed Iowa State pup.
Supplying the humor in news and on stage,
There's nary a flub in his make-up.

HALL OF FAME

LEE QUICKSELL

Lee is tops in scholarship
Yet she has time for fun,
Because of her friendly ways
She's "in" with everyone.

CHUCK BUCKEL

You'll get a bashful "hi" from him
In class or in the hall,
He's tops in almost everything
Chuck's really on the ball.

In speech or drama she'll rule;
For ability and leadership,
She's known throughout the school.

JOHN LUNDEN

Remember John of yo-yo fame,
And many another deed,
With his personality and pep,
He can't help but succeed.

HALL OF FAME

DICK CASE

Dick Case still blows his little horn,
He gets a great big hand
The moment that he takes his place,
And starts to lead his band.

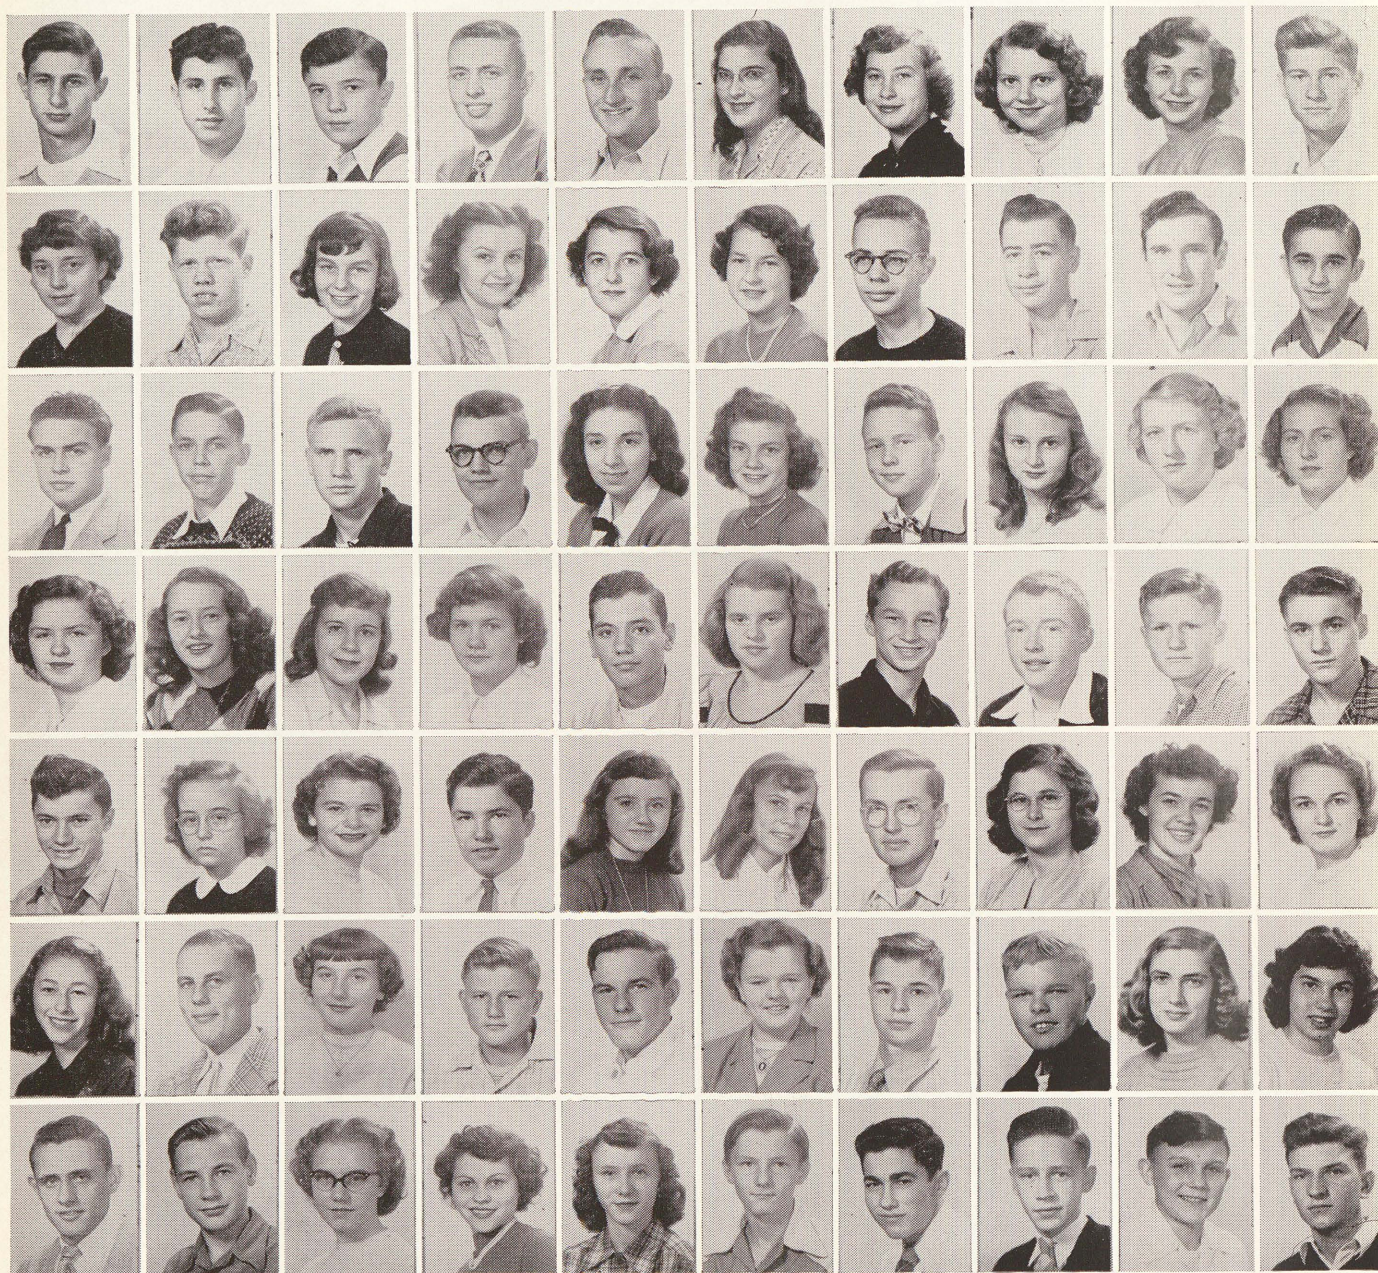

FAY CUTHBERTSON

Fay has personality, plus
Vim and vigor and "go",
Her arduous work on Legenda,
Rates the honor of Quill and Scroll.

ENGLISH, SPEECH Encourage Better Communication

SENIOR ENGLISH is a required course for college preparatory students. MAJOR LECKIE discusses Book Week with the class including BILL KENT, MARLENE RUTHIG, BOB McGEE, and RUTH ANN HAIST.

In PUBLIC SPEAKING, JOANNE DANKERT pauses a moment before taking her turn in practicing speech with poise and confidence. Classmate on-lookers include JIM MATTHIES, LARRY SALVI, and ELAINE SPERRY.

CORRECTIVE SPEECH CLASS, conducted on the stage of the auditorium, helps students overcome speech defects through recordings and discussions of each individual's voice. DICK WARNER, MISS CATHERINE FURBEE, instructor, JEAN STOFFEL, DEAN DUFF, GRETA GLASBY, and FRED FELTON run over exercises.

JOURNALISM class prepares students for publication work. Writing, photography, advertising, and business management are phases open. ROLAND TROGAN, MARY ANN STRAIT, SALLY BUTTS, DOROTHY NELLETT, and MARILYN CAMPBELL compare their assignments.

GOVERNMENT, LANGUAGE Open International Doors

SPANISH, one of the most popular languages taught, aids in promoting world understanding and peace. FRED ACKER, PAT COOK, BILL WASH-ABAUGH, and BARBARA RISDON, use one of the classroom charts as they carry on a conversation about Mexico.

GERMAN, like other languages, promotes world fellowship through an understanding of European people and their language. ROBERTA BAUSTERT discusses class work with BOB RUHLIG, ALLEN WIECK, JOHN RUPP, and BONNIE SIMMET.

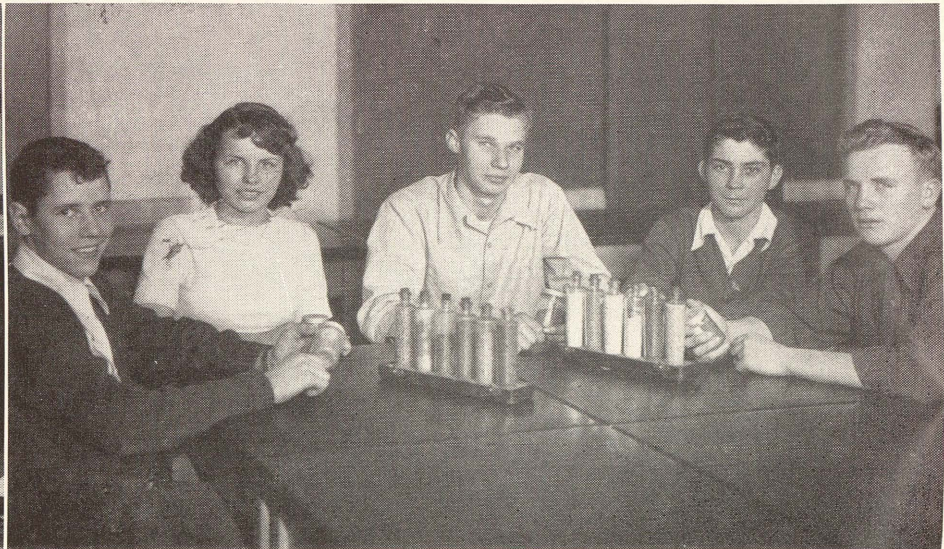

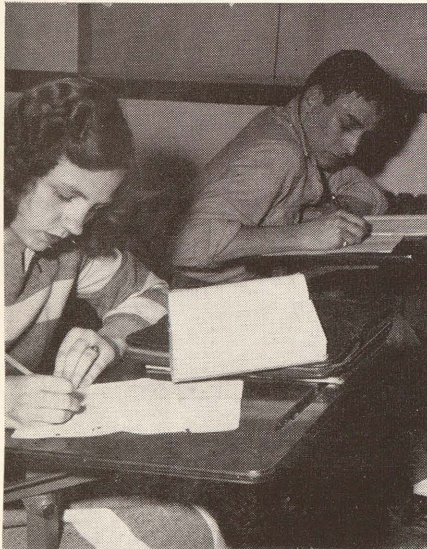

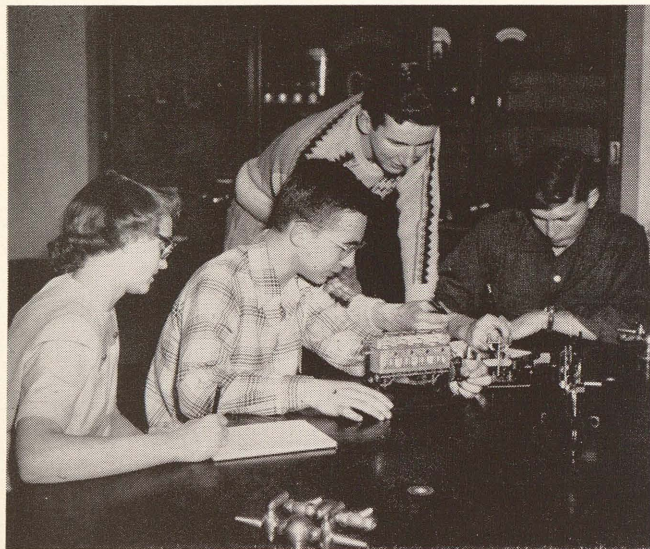

WORLD HISTORY compares the past with the present through use of textbooks and current news materials. This class strives to promote world harmony through understanding. BETTY BROCKWAY recites on a current issue, a regular Monday event.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY at the City Hall calls for those seniors from both Arthur Hill and Saginaw High who have been chosen according to the city charter by fellow classmates to govern Saginaw for a day. DAVID WATROUS, FRED PORTERFIELD, TED MARKEY, LOREN DIETRICH, MARVIN HILL, HERB BERNTHAL, JOHN LUNDEN, BOB RUPPRECHT, JOHN WESLEY, JOANNE NICHOLAS, DON BLOWER, GEORGE MAJORAS, FRED WARD, DICK AGRICOLA, and JOEL MILLS attend a council meeting.

SCIENCE, MATH Grow Important in Today's World

PHYSICS students make use of problems and experiments. LARRY PIKE and BILL WASHABAUGH examine a model engine, as BARBARA OLSON and JERRY QUALMAN take notes.

GEOMETRY calls for the use of hand as well as head in making use of such terms as "tangents", "triangles", and "theorems". SHIRLEY LAMPEL constructs a circle with a compass while JEAN ROBART, DALE RAYCRAFT, and JOHN SHANNON study the problem.

REFRESHER MATH may take the place of English 8. Mathematic tests are given each senior to determine whether or not he needs the course. JENETTE COLTON and AL BAUER ponder over a lesson on division of decimals.

AGRICULTURE CLASSES are mainly concerned with studying soil, crops, and livestock. JACK FISCHER, SALLY HOLLAND, HOWARD BERNREUTER, RONALD LYNCH, and DICK ARMSTRONG are examining beans. Classes are open to both boys and girls from either country or city.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS Offer Actual Experience

During MECHANICAL DRAWING CLASS, DON BUTTS and REUBEN EWERT combine technical instruments with study to produce a blue print. This course affords an opportunity to prepare for industrial work or an architectural career.

Heavy enrollment in INTERIOR DECORATING proves that Hillite girls are interested in their homes. DONNA LEBSACK, ELSIE WHITMORE, EDNA PALMER, and MAE-SUE STEVENS display their talents. Students experiment with furniture finishing as well as make accessories such as lamp shades for their own use.

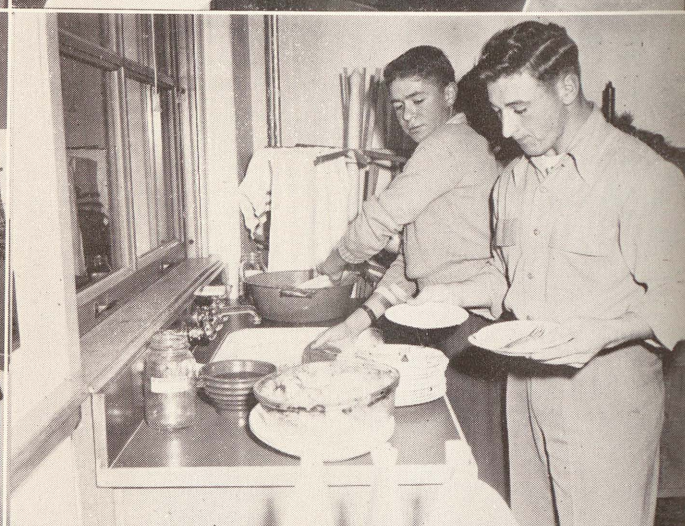

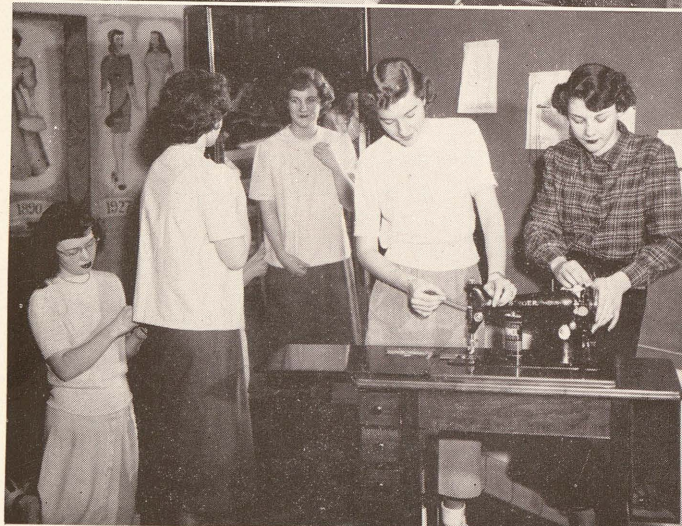

ART CLASSES offer unlimited opportunities in general art, commercial arts, and costume design. Each student may choose his own field and try new methods of presentation. TED BAASE, PAT GOODROW, and ANN YOUNG make paper figures while WILFRED HORNING does an ink wash.

SHOP CLASSES aid in training future carpenters, architects, and home repair men. General repair work of school equipment affords experience. VINCENT DILLEY demonstrates his ability in putting the finishing touches on a marking period project.

VOCATIONAL CLASSES Educate for Immediate Careers

SALES CLASSES help prepare students for the commercial world. The course is operated by a merchant-school cooperative plan. Tours and interviews are arranged, and students are placed in jobs to which they are adapted. ANN AKERLEY is being interviewed for a job by Mr. DERRILL R. RODD, assistant manager of Penney's.

TYPING CLASSES are open to students who desire training for secretarial careers or personal use. KEN KELLY, DON KEITH, STEVE MIKULAY, BOB SCHUETTE, JOHN LUNDEN, MARTIN SCHULER, JANICE SCHNARR, and RALPH STROEBEL take a timed test.

Through CLOTHING CLASSES, girls learn to design and create clothing for themselves. ANN REMINGTON tries on a garment for ISABELLE WERTZ to pin the hem in place. LILA WEHNER and AUDRIE COMISKY check one of the sewing machines as part of their daily lesson.

Boys interested in COOKING are taught to whip up tasty dishes in the school's kitchen. FRED HEINZ and HAROLD BALDAUF prove that cleaning up is essential in the making of a good cook by washing the dishes after their meal.

GYM, ART of LIVING Serve as Required Aids

GYMNASIUM CLASSES for girls include instructions pertaining to health and sports, and individual aid is available to those students having personal physical problems. Letters are awarded for intramural sports which are conducted after school.

BOYS' GYM CLASSES emphasize physical fitness and good sportsmanship. These boys, lined up for an intramural race, participate in one of the typical games of the class period.

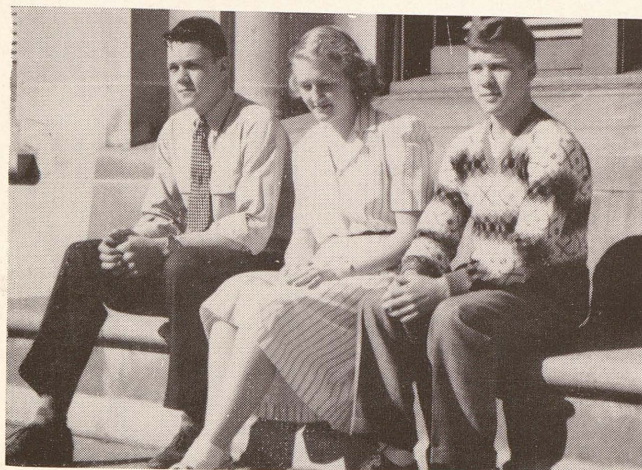

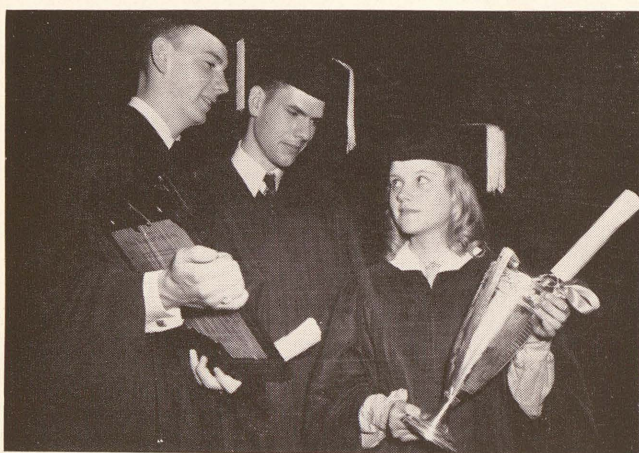

ART of LIVING classes cover a score of subjects such as conduct, personality, and vocations. Dancing, as demonstrated by MARILYN HAND-LOVITS and GEORGE HARRIS, is one of the most liked activities. Table arrangements explained by LOIS KLEMM and EDNA DIENER rate as one of the most useful projects.

ART OF LIVING delves deep into student problems to help underclassmen over the rough spots and start them on the right road. Mr. David GAINEY and DAVID FIGUEROA settle a question by consulting one of the many books available to this class.

CLUB HILLITE Offers Dancing, Games, Fun, Food

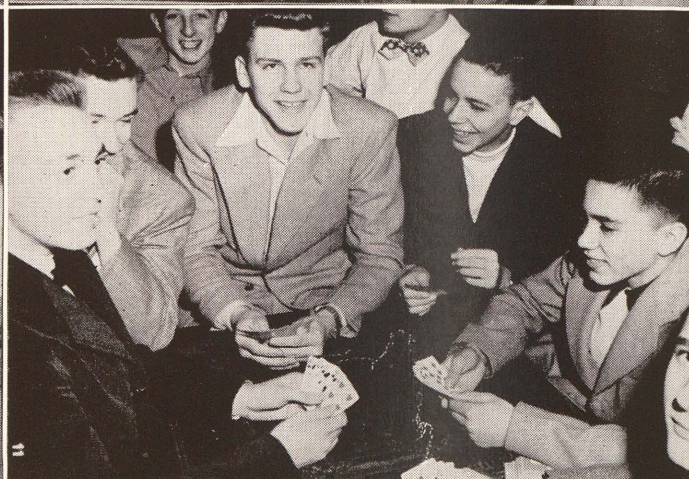

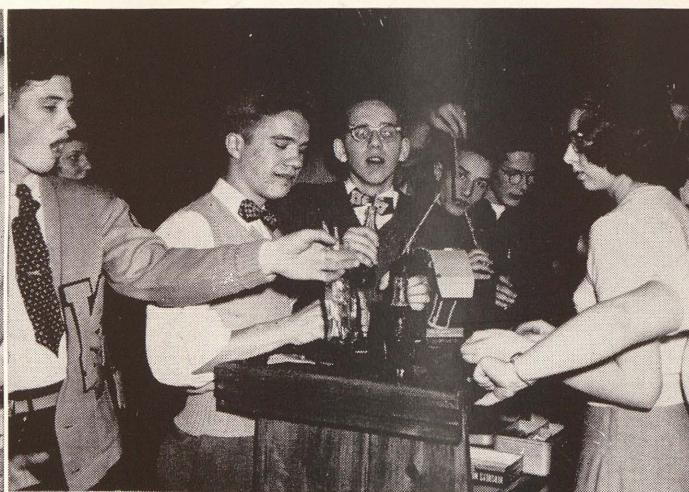

CLUB HILLITE BIG THIRTEEN organizes all Club Hillite dances. DAVE WATROUS, ED MORGAN, JOHN R. STEWART, DICK VOLKER, JIM SMITH, BOB SIMON, MARY ANN SUINO, JANE TOTTEN, general chairman; LEE QUICKSELL, MARY D. HOLMES, and SALLY DIERICH head all advisory committees. Missing from the picture are Ted Auger and Fay Cuthbertson.

CRANBERRY CREEP highlights Thanksgiving Day activities. These students are trying to guess how many cranberries are in the jar. Winner was Bob Flucke who won a turkey as his prize.

SELLING COKES to HARRY ORDWAY, RICHARD BESEY, HAROLD NEEDHAM, DICK WARNER, and HAROLD GLASSLEE is ROBERTA MacGREGOR at a Club Hillite Dance.

CLUB HILLITERS, CAROLE LOVEJOY, JOYCE BAIRD, DICK TUNNEY, and GALE VORCE sit this dance out in order to enjoy a game of cards.

THE GANG, gathering at Club Hillite, includes JIM TIMMONS, DON SPRINGER, ROGER HINES, JIM VOELKER, TERRY ANDRE, and GARRY MATHEWSON.

WHERE THERE'S RHYTHM and swing there's DICK CASE and his Arthur Hill DANCE BAND. Members include TOM GOCHNAUR, BOB HUEBLER, JOHN R. STEWART, DICK SEBALD, BOB KLUMP, DON VIBERT, DICK CASE, BILL MILLER, GRANT SMITH, TED AEBENANTE, KEN HUNTER, BILL ROWELL, and ROLAND TROGAN.

PAT ARMSTRONG, BOB SIMON, ARLENE RICHMOND, BOB QUACKENBUSH, MARCIA BLOOMFIELD, GRETA CHRISTIANSEN, MARGARET PAGENKOPF, and SUZANNE RUPP walk this dance out.

HAVING FUN at the Thanksgiving dance, the Cranberry Creep, is this energetic crowd of Hillites. In the foreground BOB FLUCKE holds up his prize, a turkey.

MABEL WESSON, dance band vocalist, sings a dreamy melody at one of the Club Hillite dances.

AT THE COKE BAR, BOB SCHUETTE, MARILYN MORGAN, DOROTHY PRESSPRICH, LORRAINE FANGER, BARBARA CHEADLE, and JIM SCHMIDT chat and watch the other dancers.

SENIOR WEEK Is a Gala Affair

'48 Seniors BEVERLY HARBISON and MARGARET ZINK march to the song of "Pomp and Circumstance" at the Baccalaureate services conducted by Dr. Henry W. Fischer.

The Senior Assembly gives the seniors an opportunity to bid the underclassmen goodbye. This is an hour of reminiscence and forecast where seniors wear their caps and gowns for the first time.

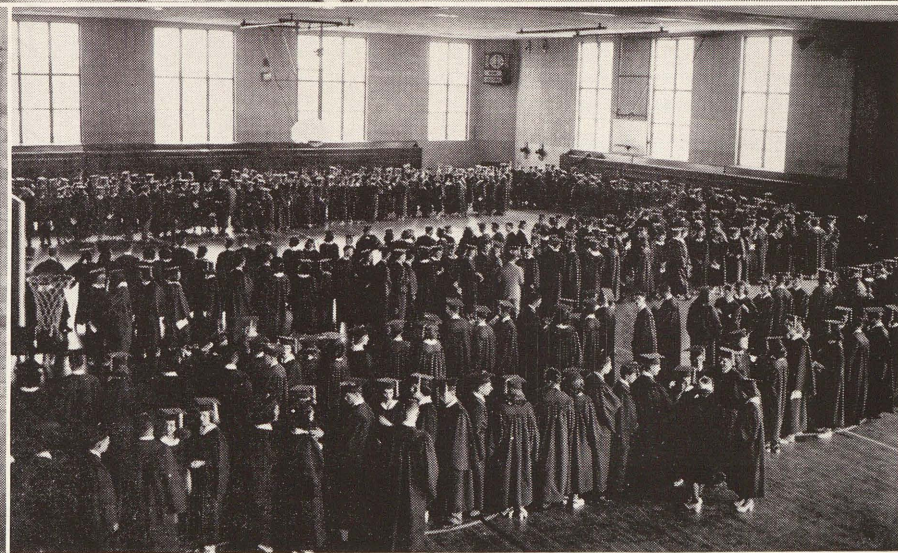

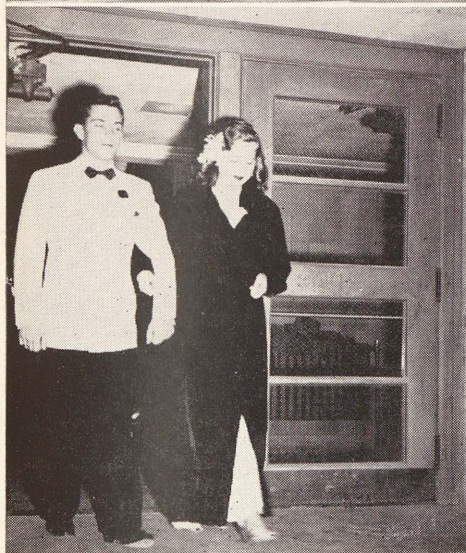

The Commencement Pageant "One World" illustrates the coming together of religion, education, science, welfare, agriculture, and enterprise to unite all nations. Here those who were outstanding during high school life are recognized.

Seniors and their guests don formals and dinner jackets for the Senior Dinner, planned by Miss Ellen Green. BOB HINES, KATHLEEN BUEKER, PAUL SCHWARCK, SHIRLEY SAGER, MARSHALL BROWN, MARILYN HINES, JOHNNY SCHNEIDER, and MARY HUMMEL enjoy the meal before the dance.

SENIOR PROM Climaxes High School Days

SENIOR PROM, the climax of senior days, always takes place on the Monday of graduation week. Here the dancers swirl to the music of Lamont Corps' orchestra beneath a crepe paper canopy.

DONNA PELOQUIN, LYDIA DOLPH, and TED SHREVE enter the dance floor, via the flower-bedecked arbor, for the Senior Prom. This final party is the only formal dance of the year.

AFTER THE DANCE IS OVER, FRED ITTNER and SALLY SOMMERS may find themselves with tired feet but also with the memory of a perfect evening.

SENIORS line up in caps and gowns in preparation for the Senior Assembly in which the class will and the prophesies for the coming years are read.

COMMUNITY UNDERWRITES YEARBOOK

Graduation time often means the parting of high school friends, but it doesn't have to be so—because now there may be an opportunity to go on working together at Michigan Bell.

Because of the telephone's importance in the modern world, Michigan Bell girls find a real thrill in their daily work. And they have such advantages as excellent pay right from the start . . . assured opportunities to progress . . . vacations with pay . . . congenial companions . . . along with many other desirable features that go to make an attractive occupation.

If you're interested in a good job and steady income of your own, drop in at our employment office—309 S. Washington—and bring your girl friends with you. An interviewer will be glad to give you full details.

Mr. Arthur Eddy, one of Saginaw's leading citizens, in his will left a fund, known as the C. K. Eddy family memorial fund, in memory of his father. The income from part of this fund is available to make loans for Saginaw residents to attend the University of Michigan or any other Michigan College where the students are on a partial self-support basis. About 12 students are now in college through help from this source. Funds are now available for 10 or 12 more loans. If interested and qualified for college, get in touch with our trust department.

As Their Official Legenda
Photographer

This year, as in years past, it has been our pleasure to work with Miss Mattie G. Crump and the students of her journalism class at Arthur Hill High School in producing the Legenda. We want to take this opportunity to express our thanks to them, and to extend to all members of the 1949 graduating class our heartiest good wishes for the success and happiness in life for which their education has so well prepared them. We "oldsters" who are in the business world, and particularly those of us in the Graphic Arts, know full well the value of the wonderful education you have been privileged to receive. We trust you will make the most of it.
